

Dad the Family Quarterback

Travis Turner

Leadership on a football team starts with the Quarterback. The same can be said for every home schooling family, it starts with DAD. This workshop will inspire, encourage, motivate and challenge every man who attends. The family leader needs to know: 1. His position (who God designed him to be), 2. His team (their strengths and weaknesses), 3. Team goals (how to set and accomplish them), 4. How to solve conflict (every single day). Don't miss this dynamic session designed to help men lead their team to victory.

1. Godly attributes of a home school dad

A. Confident and Teachable

Philippians 1:6- "Being confident in this, ....He who began a good work in you, will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus."

B. Leads by example

Ephesians 4:1 "Live a life worthy of the calling you have received. Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love.."

2. Knowing your team

A. Understanding your wife and children's personalities

Proverbs 2:3-5 "If you call out for insight and cry aloud for understanding, and if you look for it as for silver and search for it as for hidden treasure, then you will understand the fear of the Lord and find the knowledge of God."

3. Putting a game plan together

A. Setting goals, daily, weekly, monthly and yearly.

Proverbs 16:9 "In his heart a man plans his course, but the Lord determines his steps."

4. Resolving conflicts

A. Take the time to mend all wounds

Ephesians 5:25-27 "Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her to make her holy, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word, and to present her to himself as a radiant church, without stain or wrinkle or any other blemish, but holy and blameless."
